REVENTLOW STORMS AGAIN.

Urges Counter Offensive Against Allied Propaganda.

AMSTERDAM, Aug. 19.-Count Ernst von Reventlow, chief editorial writer of the Tagescettung of Berlin, recommends an "effective counter offensive" against the extension of the propaganda contained in "masses of pamphlets spread over Germany, aiming at the confusion, excitement and incitement of the incompetent masses."

Count von Reventlow mentions a pamphlet entitled "The Happiness of the Puture—a Peace League of Nations." and another containing articles one of which praises the revelations of Prince Lichnowsky, while a third reproduces the letter from Dr. Wilhelm Muchlon, former director of Krupps, to former Imperial Chancellor Dr. von Bethmann-
